ANDROS

Description

It is difficult to describe this amazing house for sale in Andros, probably built more than 200 years ago ☐☐ The present owner has put a lot of care and consideration in to the ground up renovation to become this lovely house of 160 m2 in a beautiful land of 1400m2. The house is not accessible by car, but by a path with some steps. All the floors of the house are antique marble slabs or with cement floors All the windows are made of wood with double glazing, and the doors are French antique. Spreading over two levels, we have, upstairs, a large master bedroom with a wood-burning stove, a bathroom en-suite and walk-in closet, while the French doors open onto the big veranda facing the sea. On the ground floor, we have a huge stunning kitchen with old marble flooring, a living room with a large fireplace and antique French doors and a guest bedroom with a bathroom with a Plexiglas roof and original fireplace. In the house, there are plenty of other rooms ☐ amazing laundry with natural spring water, storage rooms, cellar, wc, corridor with wood stove ☐ The outside of the house is as amazing as the inside, with an outdoor kitchen, shower room, dozens of private corners to enjoy the peaceful garden full of trees, more storage ☐☐ And of course the amazing cistern that is today a wonderful plunge pool of almost 50 m2. An exceptional property!
