

Hydra, Kamini, for sale, beautiful old house fully restored

HYDRA

Description

Located in Kamini village, about 1 Km from Hydra port along the coast road, this 200-year old house has recently been elegantly restored and modernized. Set atop a hillside it offers breathtaking panoramic views of Kamini harbour, the Saronic Gulf and the surrounding countryside and village. It has been restored with respect for the traditional local architecture, with high wooden ceilings and open beams, stone and wooden flooring, thick walls. It is beautifully furnished and decorated, with charm and taste. Built on three floors, the house is entered from the courtyard via a wide entrance. The ground floor consists of a pleasant living/dining area and a well equipped kitchen. Internal stairs from the corner of the living space lead to the first floor. The ground floor has also a guest room with double bedroom and en-suite shower room, with separate entrance from the courtyard garden. The first floor consists of 2 spacious bedrooms sharing one bathroom with shower and bath. It has access to a large covered terrace enjoying magnificent sea views. The perfect place for sunbathing or dining. The top floor consists of a large open plan authentic and atmospheric living room and an en-suite shower room. It can be used as a sitting room or as a fourth bedroom. Doors open to the roof terrace with breathtaking panoramic views. The courtyard garden has plenty of shady trees and a number of sitting areas for guests to enjoy at different times of the day. For outdoor cooking and dining, under the moonlight and stars, there's an excellent wood-burning pizza oven and grill. To cool off during the heat of the day there is an outdoor shower. Air-conditioning/heating throughout. The property is being sold fully furnished. Well-located in a private and peaceful rural environment, it is the ideal refuge for those seeking to indulge in the serene beauty of cosmopolitan Hydra.
