

Prestigious architect-designed villa for sale in Paros

PAROS

Description

Nestling on the island of Paros, this luxury villa is a true work of art. Designed by a renowned architect, this exceptional residence combines contemporary elegance with a deep respect for the island's iconic Cycladic style. Imbued with the architect's unique vision, the villa offers a perfect symbiosis of interior and exterior. Strategically positioned windows capture the surrounding natural splendour, creating a living tableau that changes with the seasons. Exceptionally spacious, the villa spans 668 square metres, nestling in the heart of a vast 11,340 square metre plot. The location is privileged, offering breathtaking sea views over the pretty bay of Isterni, just 5 kilometres from picturesque Naoussa. Inside, the villa has five bedrooms, each with an en suite bathroom. Two of these are duplexes, incorporating a living/dining room and kitchen, creating elegant and functional living spaces. The wide corridors, adorned with large windows, create fluidity between the different rooms in the house. The unexpected is revealed in every room, such as the martial arts room, reminiscent of an Orthodox church, or the Zen garden, an invitation to meditation. Finally, the splendid interior courtyard creates an oasis of tranquillity, while the vast infinity pool (heated), facing the sea horizon, invites you to moments of refined relaxation. This villa embodies the essence of Mediterranean luxury, combining the art of architecture with the natural beauty of Paros.
