

Sifnos, 18th century house for sale

SIFNOS

Description

Traditional 18c Landmark property of 200 sq. m, it was used as the village's old grape pressing facility, rebuilt on blueprints by renowned architect Nikos Valsamakis in the 70s and updated in 2000. It is located on the outskirts of the medieval Kastro village in Sifnos, with unlimited breath-taking views of the Aegean sea. Featured in House Beautiful, Inside and the Greek edition of Architectural Digest. Ideal to be used as a private house accommodating up to 8 people or as a seasonal rental with a minimum rental of 6-8 weeks per year. This traditional property is secluded and comprises of 2 houses adjacent to each other and includes 4 traditional Cycladic style fireplaces. The property is located on the North-eastern side of Kastro at the end of Kastro village, offering 260 degree views of the Aegean sea and the islands of Syros, Mykonos, Paros and Antiparos on a clear day. It is a 10 min walk from Kastro beach and Eptamartyrs rocks, and a 20 min walk from scenic Poulati beach. The first villa consists of a double bedroom, living/dining room, bathroom shower room (built into the rock), kitchen and veranda overlooking the sea. The second villa consists of a dispatched bedroom with 2 bunk beds looking into a small veranda. From the same veranda you enter the living room, on the left you have a small bedroom with 2 single beds, on the right you step up to a small kitchen, and then to the bathroom/shower room which is also built into the rock. From the living room you also walk into the main bedroom with a double bed, and then onto a secluded back veranda with unlimited views of the Aegean and 5 islands.
