Описание

Villa for sale in Farangas . The villa sits in the most protected and prestigious location on the island. It has it all: the sea view, the unique location of Farangas which offers a feeling of freedom, its southwest orientation with a view of the most beautiful sunsets. The villa consists of three separate buildings. The main house is comprised of a large double living room facing the sea, followed by the dining area and the pretty Cycladic kitchen. A few steps bring us to two bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms. Upstairs is the master bedroom with a large terrace and private bathroom. The basement is reserved for the laundry room and houses for the staff. The second building consists of a nice living room and two bedrooms with private bathroom and terrace overlooking the sea. Finally, the third building entails one bedroom with its own bathroom. The outdoor spaces are magical. The many terraces are a huge draw, either for family meals, or simply for isolated calm in a soothing landscape that invites contemplation.
